

Start your tour of the Miners' graves in the Presbyterian section

Row 3: Mr. George Douglas Mine Manager

Church of England

Row 11: Edward Wood Miner

Row 12: George Baulcomb Miner
Anton Andersson Miner

Row 6: Carl Serrurier Miner
Abraham Wyatt Miner

Monument in middle of roadway

Methodist/ Wesleyan

Row 5: James Harris Engine Driver

Row 7: John Manley Survivor

Row 9: James Spargo Engine Driver
William Tregloan Miner
John Crougey Miner
John Thomas Clifton Miner

Row 12: Thomas Chegwin Miner

Row 13: Jabez & Benjamin Bellingham Miners
William Curtis Miner
Frederick Fisher Miner
John Thomas Hodge Miner
John Thomas Hodge Captain of Shift

Catholic

Row 1: Patrick Bowen Survivor

Row 2: James Carmody Miner
Thomas Corbett Survivor

Row 3: William Carbes Boss of Shift

Row 6: Edward Dargon Miner

Row 8: Michael Hayes Miner

Row 10: James Minahan Miner
James O'Shea/ Walsh Miner

Start your tour of the Notable Citizens graves in the Various section

Row 1: William Davies J.P.

Presbyterian

Row 1: Anderson Family
James Stevenson

Row 2: Leonard Carter
Graham Family

Row 12: William Miller

Church of England

Row 1: Sir A. J. and Lady Millie Peacock
Anthony Pasco

Row 2: Dr. John Tremearne

Methodist/ Wesleyan

Row 1: Emma Malton
Benjamin White
Sarah & Edward Brawn
Henry Hammon

Row 2: James Bunyan J.P.
Thomas Cooper

Row 11: Richard Jeffrey

Catholic

Row 1: Jeremiah & Catherine Coffey

Row 6: John O'Neill

Row 7: Mary Johnson

Garden— Chinese burials

Shed— Site of original sexton's cottage

There are many more notable citizens in our cemetery but too many to mark.

Part of the Lindsay trail are the Lindsay graves which will be found in the Methodist section row 3

Jane Ingram will be found in the Catholic section row 10

These graves will be found on the map with the yellow dot.

Established 1858

Australasian No. 2 Mine Disaster & Notable Citizens Walking Tour

Above: The original sexton's cottage taken 1930's

Not to Scale

